WEATHER KEY POINTS

11/13/19 - 11/19/19

Wednesday-Saturday

- No significant weather impacts are expected across the state, with generally dry conditions and light winds.
  - A few light showers are possible across Coastal Region, but no significant impacts are expected.

Sunday-Tuesday

- Periods of elevated to locally critical fire weather conditions may develop beginning Sunday due to very low relative humidity and gusty winds
  - A weak to potentially moderate Santa Ana wind event is possible across Southern Region on Sunday
  - Gusty northerly or offshore winds are again possible Tuesday through Thursday of next week in some areas across the state, though confidence is currently low
